5.3 Rates and taxes

- (a) The Customer shall pay and indemnify the Supplier against all present and future rates and assessments charged on or payable in respect of the Premises and in respect of any car park spaces which the Customer has the right to use under the terms of this Lease whether payable by the Supplier owner occupier or Customer of the Premises and whether of a capital or income recurring or non-recurring nature but excluding any payable by the Supplier occasioned by receipt of the rents or by any disposition or dealing with ownership of any interest reversionary to the interest created by this Lease.
- (b) If the Supplier shall suffer any loss of rating relief which may be applicable to empty premises at the end of the Term by reason of such relief being allowed to the Customer in respect of any period before the end of the Term, the Customer shall make good such loss to the Supplier.

5.4 Payments relating to the Premises and other property

Where any of the charges payable under clauses 5.1, 5.2 or 5.3 relate to other property as well as the Premises the amount to be paid by the Customer will be the fair and proper proportion of the whole of the amount charged or payable calculated in accordance with the principles of good estate management.

5.5 Supplier's costs

The Customer shall pay to the Supplier within 28 days of written demand the proper (and, in the case of sub-clause (f), reasonable) fees costs and expenses charged properly incurred or payable by the Supplier and its advisors or bailiffs in connection with:

- (a) any steps reasonably taken and in proper contemplation of or in relation to any proceedings under section 146 or 147 of the Law of Property Act 1925 or the Leasehold Property (Repairs) Act 1938 including the preparation and service of all notices and even if forfeiture is avoided (unless it is avoided by relief granted by the court);
- (b) preparing and serving schedules of dilapidations at any time during the Term (or within 3 calendar months after the Term in respect of dilapidations arising during the Term) and supervising any works undertaken to remedy such dilapidations;
- (c) recovering (or attempting to recover) any arrears of Rent or other sums due to the Supplier under this Lease;
- (d) any reasonable investigations or reports reasonably carried out to determine the nature and extent of any breach by the Customer of its obligations in this Lease;
- (e) any proper and reasonable steps taken to procure that a breach by the Customer of its obligations under this Lease is remedied; and
- (f) any application for a consent of the Supplier (including the preparation of any necessary documents) which is needed by virtue of this Lease whether or not such consent is granted provided that such consent is not unlawfully withheld or delayed.

5.6 VAT

- (a) All sums due and any other consideration to be given to the Supplier under this Lease are exclusive of VAT, which the Customer shall pay on receipt of a proper and valid VAT invoice.
- (b) If the Customer is obliged to reimburse expenditure incurred by the Supplier, that obligation includes payment of VAT irrecoverable by the Supplier.

5.7 Interest

- (a) If the Rent or any other sums payable under this Lease are not paid to the Supplier within 10 Working Days of the due date for payment the Customer shall pay interest to the Supplier at the Interest Rate for the period from and including the due date until payment (both before and after any judgment).

- (b) If the Supplier refuses to accept any Rent or other sums due under this Lease for a reasonable and proper reason when the Customer is in breach of any of its material obligations in this Lease the Customer shall pay interest on such sum to the Supplier at the Interest Rate for the period from and including the date such sum became due until the date that the payment is accepted by the Supplier.
- (c) All interest under this Lease will accrue on a daily basis and will be payable immediately on demand.

5.8 Exclusion of statutory compensation

Any statutory right of the Customer or any undertenant to claim compensation from the Supplier or any Superior Landlord on leaving the Premises is excluded to the extent that the law allows.

6 Insurance

6.1 Supplier's obligations

- (a) The Supplier shall insure the Building against the Insured Risks for the amount that the Supplier reasonably considers is the full cost of reinstatement of the Building (taking inflation and building costs into account) other than:
 - (i) any part installed by or on behalf of the Customer or any undertenant; and
 - (ii) any plate glass at the Premises or at any Offices
- (b) The insurance taken out by the Supplier shall be through a reputable agency chosen by the Supplier acting reasonably and subject to any exclusions excesses and conditions as may be:
 - (i) usual in the insurance market at the time;
 - (ii) required by the insurers; or
 - (iii) reasonably required by the Supplier.
- (c) The Supplier (at the request of the Customer and at no expense to the Customer on one occasion during each calendar year but otherwise on payment by the Customer of a reasonable fee) produce details of the terms of the current insurance policy and evidence of the payment of the current premium.
- (d) The Supplier shall use reasonable endeavours to procure that the insurance policy shall contain a waiver of all rights of subrogation against the Customer any undertenant and its or their mortgagees.

6.2 Customer's obligations

The Customer shall:

- (a) pay the Insurance Rent in accordance with this Lease;
- (b) pay on demand:
 - (i) any increase in the insurance premium for any part of the Building or any Adjoining Property which is attributable to the use of the Premises or anything done or omitted to be done on the Premises by the Customer or any other occupier of the Premises;

- (ii) a proper proportion of the costs reasonably and properly incurred or payable by the Supplier in connection with the Supplier obtaining any valuation of the Building for insurance purposes as long as such valuation is made at least 2 years after any previous such valuations;
 - (iii) a proper proportion of the amount of any excess (provided the Customer is not at fault) required by the insurers in connection with any Insured Damage provided that if the damage is caused by any act or omission of the Customer the Customer shall pay the whole excess;
 - (iv) any amount which the insurers refuse to pay following damage to any part of the Building because of any act or omission of the Customer;
 - (c) comply with the requirements of the insurers notified in writing to the Customer relating to the Premises and the rights granted to the Customer by this Lease;
 - (d) not do or omit to do anything which may make any insurance of the Building or of any Adjoining Property taken out by the Supplier void or voidable or which would result in an increase in the premiums for such insurance;
 - (e) give the Supplier written notice promptly upon becoming aware of anything which the Customer reasonably believes to be Insured Damage;
 - (f) not take out any insurance of the Premises against the Insured Risks in its own name without the consent of the Supplier other than in respect of:
 - (i) any part of the Premises installed by or on behalf of the Customer or any undertenant or any other occupier of the Premises; and
 - (ii) any plate glass at the Premises;
- and if the Customer has the benefit of any such insurance the Customer shall hold all money receivable under that insurance upon trust for the Supplier; and
- (g) not to obstruct the access to any fire equipment or any means of escape from the Premises or the Building.

6.3 Reinstatement following damage by an Insured Risk

- (a) If Insured Damage occurs, then:
 - (i) unless payment of any insurance monies is refused because of any act or omission of the Customer or any undertenant (and the Customer has not made good such damage);
 - (ii) subject to the Supplier being able to obtain any necessary consents (which the Supplier shall use all reasonable endeavours to obtain); and
 - (iii) subject to the necessary labour and materials being and remaining available;

the Supplier shall use the insurance monies received by the Supplier making up any shortfall out of its own monies (except monies received for loss of rent) in repairing and reinstating:

- (A) the Premises (other than any part which the Supplier is not obliged to insure) or in constructing comparable premises; and
- (B) such part of the Building over which the Customer exercises rights granted by this Lease; as soon as reasonably possible.

- (b) The Supplier shall use reasonable endeavours to obtain the labour materials and consents to repair or reinstate the Premises but will not be obliged to appeal against any refusal of a consent.

6.4 Suspension of rent following damage by an Insured Risk

- (a) If Insured Damage makes the Premises or the Common Parts (which are reasonably needed by the Customer to access the Premises) unfit for occupation and use or inaccessible, the Rent and Service Charge (or a proper proportion of them according to the nature and extent of the damage) will be suspended until the earlier of:
 - (i) the date when the Premises or Common Parts (which are needed by the Customer to access the Premises) or such part have been made fit for occupation or use or the means of access restored or the Service Media over which the rights are exercised are repaired or restored; and
 - (ii) the end of the Loss of Rent period.
- (b) The Rent will not be suspended to the extent that any loss of rent insurance has been made ineffective or payment of it has been refused by the insurers because of any act or omission by the Customer or any undertenant.
- (c) Any dispute relating to this clause 6.4 will be referred to arbitration.

6.5 Customer's option to determine

- (a) If Insured Damage makes the Premises or Common Parts (which are needed by the Customer to access the Premises) unfit for occupation and use and the Supplier has not been able to complete the necessary works of repair or reinstatement (because of circumstances beyond its reasonable control) by the date which is 2 months before the end of the Loss of Rent Period, the Customer may at any time during those 2 months or after before the necessary works are completed terminate this Lease by giving 1 month's written notice to the Supplier (Customer's Determination Notice).
- (b) The Customer's Determination Notice may not be given after the Premises have been reinstated pursuant to clause 6.3.
- (c) Subject to this clause 6.5, this Lease will terminate on the date specified in the Customer's Determination Notice but such termination will be without prejudice to any claim which the Supplier or the Customer may have against the other for any earlier breach of their respective obligations in this Lease.

- (d) The Customer shall remain bound by clauses 6.2(b)(iii) and 6.2(b)(iv) after such termination.

6.6 Supplier's option to determine

If the Building or substantially the whole of the Building is made unfit for occupation and use the Supplier may by not less than 1 month's written notice served upon the Customer and given to expire at any time within 3 years of the damage or destruction determine this Lease (Supplier's Determination Notice) (provided the Supplier is not in material breach of this clause 6) and upon the expiry of the Supplier's Determination Notice this Lease shall determine without prejudice to any claim which the Supplier or the Customer may have against the other for any earlier breach of their respective obligations in this Lease and the Customer shall not be entitled to any compensation except that (if any) payable under the provisions of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954.

6.7 Insurance monies

All insurance monies payable will belong to the Supplier.

- (a) In this clause the following definitions apply:

Election Notice means written notice given by the Supplier to the Customer in which the Supplier elects to reinstate the Premises

Election Period means the period of 12 months following the date of Excluded Risk Damage

Excluded Risk Damage means damage to or destruction of the Premises or any part of the Building over which the Customer exercises rights granted by this Lease caused by an Excluded Risk, which:

- (i) is not the result of some act or default of the Customer or any undertenant or person under their control; and
- (ii) results in the Premises or Common Parts (which are needed by the Customer to access the Premises) being unfit for occupation and use or inaccessible

Reinstatement Works means works carried out at the Supplier's cost to:

- (i) reinstate the Premises (other than any part which the Supplier is not obliged to insure) or to construct comparable premises
- (ii) reinstate such part of the Building over which the Customer exercises rights granted by this Lease

Termination Notice means written notice served by either party on the other, terminating this Lease with immediate effect

- (b) From the date of Excluded Risk Damage, the Customer's obligations pursuant to clauses 8.1 and 8.2 and the obligation to pay the Rent, Service Charge, Electricity Rent and the Air Conditioning Charges (or a proper proportion of them according to the nature and extent of the damage) shall cease to apply (only to the extent that any want of repair or condition in the Premises results from Excluded Risk Damage) and such cessation shall continue until the earlier of:

- (i) the reinstatement of the Premises in accordance with clause 6.8(d); and
 - (ii) the termination of this Lease in accordance with any of the provisions in this clause 6.
- (c) If Excluded Risk Damage occurs the Supplier may give an Election Notice to the Customer at any time within the Election Period.
- (d) If the Supplier serves an Election Notice the Supplier shall as soon as reasonably possible following service of the Election Notice:
- (i) use reasonable endeavours to obtain the necessary labour materials and consents to carry out Reinstatement Works (which the Supplier shall use reasonable endeavours to obtain but will not be obliged to appeal any refusal of consent); and
 - (ii) carry out the Reinstatement Works provided that if the Supplier has not obtained all necessary planning and other consents by the date 12 months after the Election Notice, then either the Supplier or the Customer may serve a Termination Notice, whereupon this Lease will forthwith determine without prejudice to any claim by either party in respect of any antecedent breach of covenant.

- (e) If clause 6.8(d) applies and the Premises or Common Parts (which are needed by the Customer to access the Premises) have not been repaired or reinstated within 3 years of the date of the Election Notice, then either the Customer or Supplier may at any time thereafter (but not after the Premises have been reinstated in accordance with clause 6.8(d)) serve a Termination Notice, whereupon this Lease will forthwith determine without prejudice to any claim by either party in respect of any antecedent breach of covenant.
- (f) If Excluded Risk Damage occurs and:
- (i) during the Election Period the Supplier notifies the Customer that it does not intend to reinstate the Premises and/or the Building and/or the Common Parts over which the Customer exercises rights granted by this Lease (as appropriate); or
 - (ii) the Supplier does not serve an Election Notice within the Election Period;

then either the Supplier or the Customer may at any time thereafter serve a Termination Notice, whereupon this Lease will forthwith determine without prejudice to any claim by either party in respect of any antecedent breach of covenant.

- (g) Time shall be of the essence for the purposes of this clause.
- (h) Any dispute relating to this provisions in this clause shall be referred to a Surveyor, who shall act as arbitrator in accordance with the Arbitration Act 1996

Provided that in the case of Offices which are unlet at any time the Supplier shall bear the proportion of the Services which would have been recoverable from a customer had the same been let on the terms of this Lease.

7.2 Supplier's obligations

- (a) The Supplier shall provide the Services during the Usual Business Hours taking into account the principles of good estate management.
- (b) The Supplier will have no liability for any failure or interruption of any Service:
 - (i) during the proper inspection maintenance repair or replacement or any relevant Service Media or equipment;
 - (ii) resulting from a shortage of fuel water materials or labour required in connection with the Services;
 - (iii) resulting from a breakdown of any equipment required for the provision of the Services;
 - (iv) for any reason beyond the reasonable control of the Supplier.
- (c) In the circumstances mentioned in clause 7.2(b), the Supplier shall restore the relevant Service as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- (d) The Supplier shall produce the Certificate to the Customer as soon as practicable after the end of the Service Charge Year.
- (e) The Supplier shall (on reasonable written notice and at no cost to the Customer if requested no more than once in each calendar year but otherwise upon receipt of a reasonable fee) allow the Customer to inspect any invoices and receipts for the Services.

- (f) The Supplier shall notify the Customer in writing of any change in the date of the beginning of the Service Charge Year where reasonably practicable at least one month before the new date.

7.3 Customer's obligations

- (a) The Customer shall pay the Service Charge Budget and any VAT on it and the Service Charge Balance and any VAT on it as provided in clause 3.1.

- (b) If:

- (i) the commencement of the Term does not coincide with the beginning of a Service Charge Year; or
- (ii) the end of the Term does not coincide with the end of a Service Charge Year;

the Service Charge due from the Customer shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\frac{A}{365} \times B$$

in which:

A is the total Service Charge for either the Initial Service Charge Year or the Last Service Charge Year (as applicable); and

B is the number days in either the Initial Service Charge Year or the Last Service Charge Year (as applicable) which fall within the Term.

7.4 Estimating and revising the Service Charge

If during a Service Charge Year the Supplier reasonably expects the cost of the Services to increase materially above the Service Charge Budget the Supplier may adjust the remaining instalments of the Service Charge Budget but not more often than twice in each Service Charge Year provided the Supplier shall use reasonable endeavours to give the Customer written notice of the same at least 28 days before the date that the next instalment is due.

7.5 Service Charge reconciliation

- (a) If the actual Service Charge for the Service Charge Year shall exceed the Service Charge Budget for that Service Charge Year, the excess shall be due to the Supplier on demand.
- (b) If the actual Service Charge for the Service Charge Year shall be less than the Service Charge Budget, the overpayment shall within 3 months of the Certificate being issued:
 - (i) be credited to the Customer's service charge account; or
 - (ii) (in respect of the reconciliation which takes place after the end of the Term) be paid to the Customer.

7.6 General provisions

- (a) If the Supplier has not included any Supplier's Expenses in a Certificate, it may include them in a subsequent Certificate. Otherwise, the Certificate will be (in the absence of manifest error) conclusive as to the amount of the Service Charge.
- (b) The Supplier's Expenses for the Initial Service Charge Year may include provisions for expenses incurred by the Supplier before the beginning of the Term so far as they relate to Services which are to be provided during the Term.
- (c) The Supplier's Expenses in any Service Charge Year may include provisions for expenses to be incurred by the Supplier after the end of the Term so far as they relate to the Services which are provided during the Term.
- (d) No objection shall be made to any cost incurred by the Supplier included in the calculation of the Supplier's Expenses by reason that the material work or service in question might have been provided or performed at a lower cost or to a lower quality standard or specification or otherwise (save that the work or expense is not in respect of any of the Services or other expenditure within the definition of the Supplier's Expenses).

7.7 Service Charge Cap

- (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Lease the amount of the Service Charge payable by the Customer for any Service Charge Year shall not exceed the Service Charge Cap (applied pro rata in the event that the Term commences or finishes part way through a Service Charge Year) determined in accordance with the following provisions.
- (b) In respect of the Initial Service Charge Year of the Term the Service Charge Cap shall be the sum of £56,960 plus VAT
- (c) In respect of each Service Charge Year up to and excluding 1 April 2025, the Service Charge Cap shall increase (if appropriate) on the previous year's figure by the same proportion as the increase (if any) over the same period in the Retail Prices Index published by the Office for National Statistics or any successor Ministry or Department (Index).
- (d) On the Recalculation Date the Service Charge Cap shall be recalculated as follows:

$A + B = \text{Recalculated Service Charge Cap}$

Where:

A is the passing Service Charge (excluding the cost of Utilities and disregarding any Service Charge Cap) for the Premises at the Recalculation Date; and

B is £1.50 x 8,000

The Recalculated Service Charge Cap shall apply from the Recalculation Date and shall be subject to increase in accordance with clause 7.7(e).

- (e) In respect of each subsequent Service Charge Year after the Recalculation Date the Recalculated Service Charge Cap shall increase on the previous year's figure by the same proportion as the increase (if any) over the same period in the Index.

- (f) If it becomes impossible after today's date to calculate the increase in the Service Charge Cap because of any change in the methods used to compile the Index or for any other reason, the determination of the increase in the Service Charge Cap shall be determined (in the absence of agreement between the parties) by an arbitrator to be appointed either by agreement between the parties or (in the absence of agreement) by the President for the time being of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors on the application of either party.
- (g) The Service Charge Cap shall not at any time during the Term include the cost of Utilities.
- (h) The provisions of this clause 7.7 shall not apply after 31 March 2030.

- (iii) (where the term of the underlease extends beyond a Review Date) a provision for the review of the rent in the same terms and on the same dates as the review of the Rent in this Lease;
- (iv) a provision for re-entry in the same terms as clause 17;
- (v) an absolute prohibition on all dealings of the underlease or underlet premises by the undertenant, save for an assignment of the whole of the underlet premises with the prior written consent of the Customer and Supplier, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed (and which consent shall be subject to compliance by the undertenant and the Customer with the conditions in clauses 10.2(d), 10.2(e) and 10.2(f));
- (vi) an agreement between the Customer and the undertenant that where the review of rent in the underlease is referred to a third party for determination the Customer will be allowed to make representations and counter-representations to that third party on behalf of the Supplier as to the reviewed rent to be payable under the underlease;

and shall otherwise be no less onerous than the terms of this Lease (other than as to the Rent).

10.5 Rent review in an underlease

- (a) The Customer shall procure that the rent in any underlease is reviewed in accordance with the underlease.
- (b) The Customer shall not agree the level of any reviewed rent with an undertenant without the consent of the Supplier, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
- (c) If the rent review in an underlease is referred to a third party for determination the Customer shall:
 - (i) ensure that the decision as to whether that third party is to act as arbitrator or expert is made with the Supplier's consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed;
 - (ii) ensure that the Supplier is given a reasonable opportunity to supply evidence to the Customer to enable the Customer to make representations and counter-representations;
 - (iii) make representations and counter-representations on behalf of the Supplier
 - (iv) ensure that any representations and counter-representations made by the Customer or undertenant are immediately copied to the Supplier; and
 - (v) keep the Supplier informed as to the progress of that third party determination.

10.6 Further provisions relating to underleases

- (a) The Customer shall enforce the obligations of the undertenant in any underlease.
- (b) The Customer shall not vary the terms of any underlease without the consent of the Supplier (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

10.7 Group sharing of occupation

If the Customer is a company, it may share occupation of the Premises with one other company which is in the same Group as the Customer on the following conditions:

- (a) the Customer promptly notifies the Supplier in writing of the beginning and the end of the arrangement;
- (b) no relationship of landlord and tenant is created by the arrangement; and
- (c) the other company vacates the Premises immediately if it ceases to be a member of the same Group as the Customer.

10.8 Registration of dealings and provision of information

- (a) Within 1 month of any dealing with or devolution of the Premises or this Lease or of any interest created out of them or if the Customer shall:
 - (i) notify the Supplier in writing of that dealing or devolution;
 - (ii) give the Supplier a copy of any document effecting or evidencing the dealing or devolution together with a copy for any Superior Landlord and the copies will each be certified by solicitors as a true copy of the original; and
 - (iii) pay the Supplier a reasonable registration fee of £50 provided the Supplier provides the Customer with a valid VAT invoice for the supply.
- (b) The Customer shall give the Supplier written details of persons occupying the Premises and the basis upon which they occupy on request by the Supplier.

11 Legal requirements and regulations

11.1 Legislation

The Customer shall:

- (a) comply with all legislation affecting the Premises their use and occupation and the health and safety of persons working at or visiting the Premises whether the legislation requires the owner or occupier to comply;

- (c) obtain all licences and consents which are required under any legislation to use the Premises or carry out any works or other activity at the Premises; and
- (d) not do or omit to do anything at the Premises which would result in:
 - (i) any Adjoining Property or any other property owned or occupied by the Supplier (including any other part of the Building) failing to comply with any legislation; or
 - (ii) the Supplier incurring any cost penalty or liability under any legislation.

Provided that the Customer shall not be obliged by this clause 11 or any other provision of this Lease to remediate or pay towards any remediation of any Contamination at the Premises, the Common Parts or the Building not caused by the Customer or any authorised undertenant or occupier of the Premises other than any obligation other than any obligation to comply with The Control of Asbestos Regulations 2012 in relation to the Premises.

11.2 Notices relating to the Premises

The Customer shall:

- (a) give the Supplier a copy of any notice received by the Customer relating to the Premises or the Building or any occupier of them or to the Supplier's interest in them within 10 Working Days of having received it (or immediately if there are shorter time limits in the notice);
- (b) (where a notice requires compliance by the owner or occupier of the Premises) comply with the terms of any such notice (subject to clause 11.2(c)) in a manner approved by the Supplier but the Supplier's approval of any particular manner will not imply that the Customer has discharged its obligation to comply with the terms of the notice;
- (c) at the Supplier's full cost make or join the Supplier in making any objection or appeal against such notice which the Supplier may reasonably require.

11.3 Planning

- (a) The Customer shall comply with the Planning Acts.
- (b) The Customer shall pay any charge imposed under the Planning Acts in respect of the use of the Premises or any works carried out at the Premises.
- (c) The Customer shall not apply for planning permission or make any other application under the Planning Acts nor implement any planning permission affecting the Premises without the consent of the Supplier (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld).

11.4 Defective Premises

The Customer shall:

15 Third party rights

15.1 There are excepted from this Lease and this Lease is granted subject to:

- (a) all existing rights which belong to other property or are enjoyed by other property over the Premises or any land or Service Media over which rights are granted by the Supplier to the Customer by this Lease; and
- (b) the matters contained or referred to in the property and charges registers of the Supplier's Title and the Customer shall comply with the matters contained or referred to in the above registers (save in respect of financial charges) so far as they relate to the Premises and the rights granted by this Lease.

15.2 The Customer shall:

- (a) not knowingly permit any third party to acquire any right over the Premises or to encroach upon the Premises;
- (b) give the Supplier immediate written notice of any attempt to do this upon becoming aware of the same;
- (c) take any steps which the Supplier may reasonably require to prevent the acquisition of any right over or encroachment on the Premises; and
- (d) preserve for the benefit of the Premises and the Supplier's interest in them all existing rights which belong to the Premises and are enjoyed over adjoining or neighbouring property.

15.3 The Customer shall not block or obstruct any window or ventilator at the Premises.

16 Quiet enjoyment

The Supplier agrees with the Customer that for so long as the Customer materially complies with the terms of this Lease the Customer may hold and use the Premises during the Term without any interruption (except as authorised by this Lease) by the Supplier or by any person lawfully claiming through under or in trust for the Supplier.

17 Forfeiture

17.1 Supplier's right of re-entry

If any event set out in clause 17.2 occurs, the Supplier may re-enter the Premises (or any part of the Premises in the name of the whole) and forfeit this Lease. The Term will then end but without prejudice to any claim which either party may have against the other or a guarantor for any failure to comply with the terms of this Lease.

17.2 Events giving rise to the Supplier's right of re-entry

- (a) Any Rent payable under this Lease has not been paid within 28 days after it became due whether formally demanded or not.
- (b) The Customer or any guarantor has failed to comply with any material term of this Lease.

 - (ii) the directors of the Customer or guarantor resolve to present a petition for an administration order under Part II of the Insolvency Act 1986;
 - (iii) a receiver (including a receiver under section 101 of the Law of Property Act 1925) or manager or administrative receiver of its property (or part of it) is appointed;
 - (iv) a resolution for its voluntary winding up is passed under Part IV of the Insolvency Act 1986 or a meeting of its creditors is called for the purpose of considering that it be wound up voluntarily (in either case other than a voluntary winding up whilst solvent for the purposes of and followed by a solvent reconstruction or amalgamation);
 - (v) a resolution is passed that it be wound up by the court;
 - (vi) it enters into any arrangement moratorium or composition (other than any referred to above) with its creditors; or
 - (vii) it is dissolved or is removed from the Register of Companies or ceases to exist (whether or not capable of reinstatement or reconstitution).
- (e) In relation to a partnership:

- (i) it enters into a voluntary arrangement under Part II of the Partnerships Order;
or
- (ii) an application for an administration order is made or notice of appointment of an administrator is filed at court; or
- (iii) a petition is presented for winding-up as an unregistered company under Parts IV or V of the Partnerships Order.

18 Notices in connection with this Lease

- 18.1 Where a notice is to be given in connection with this Lease it must be given in writing and signed by or on behalf of the party giving it unless it is stated that it need not be given in writing.
- 18.2 Any notice to be given in connection with this Lease will be validly served if sent by first class post or registered post or special delivery and addressed to or personally delivered to:
- (a) the Supplier at its registered office or such other address which the Supplier has notified to the Customer in writing;
 - (b) the Customer at the Premises or its registered office or its last known address or such other address which the Customer has notified the Supplier of in writing; and
 - (c) a guarantor at the Premises or its registered office or its last known address or such other address which the guarantor has notified the Supplier of in writing.
- 18.3 Any notice or demand sent by post from within the UK and properly stamped and correctly addressed will be conclusively treated as having been delivered 2 Working Days after posting.

19 Miscellaneous

19.1 Supplier's rights to remedy default by the Customer

- (a) If the Customer materially fails to comply with any of its obligations in this Lease, the Supplier may (in addition to any other rights available to it) give the Customer written notice of that failure and the Customer shall begin remedying as soon as practicable but in any event within 1 month of such notice and then within a reasonable time complete the remedying of that failure.
- (b) If the Customer does not comply with clause 19.1(a) the Supplier may enter the Premises at a time and date agreed with the Customer and carry out any works or do anything else which may be needed to remedy the Customer's failure to comply with its obligations under this Lease.
- (c) Any costs properly, reasonably and actually incurred by the Supplier by reason of clause 19.1(b) will be a debt due from the Customer payable on demand and may be recovered by the Supplier as if it were additional rent.

19.2 Customer to provide information

- (a) The Customer shall give the Supplier any information or documents which the Supplier reasonably requests to show that the Customer is complying with its obligations in this Lease.

- (b) The Customer shall give the Supplier written notice immediately upon becoming aware of any defect or default which may make the Supplier liable to the Customer or any third party.

19.3 Customer's indemnity

The Customer agrees to indemnify the Supplier at all times (both during and after the Term) against all proper charges, claims, proceedings, liabilities, damages, losses, costs and expenses arising directly or indirectly from any breach of the Customer's obligations in this Lease provided that the Supplier shall use its reasonable endeavours to mitigate its losses and/or liabilities.

19.4 Customer's acknowledgment

The Customer acknowledges that it has not entered into this Lease in reliance on any representation made by or on behalf of the Supplier save in relation to written correspondence and enquiries between the Supplier's solicitors or internal legal advisor and the Customer's solicitors.

19.5 Disputes

Any dispute between the Customer (or other occupier of the Premises) and any other tenant or occupier of the Building relating to the Building shall be referred to the Supplier whose decision (provided it is made in accordance with the principles of good estate management) and in the absence of manifest error will be final and binding.

19.6 Guarantor

The Customer shall procure that a guarantor enters into any deed or document which is supplemental to this Lease and which is entered into before that guarantor is released by virtue of the Landlord and Tenant (Covenants) Act 1995.

19.7 Qualification of Supplier's liability

The Supplier will not be liable to the Customer or any other person for:

- (a) any damage to any person or property arising from any act, omission or misfeasance by the Supplier or its employees, agents or independent contractors or any other tenant or occupier of the Building;
- (b) any damage to person or property arising from the state and condition of the Premises, any other part of the Building or any Adjoining Property;
- (c) any interruption to the supply of Utilities to the Premises or other parts of the Building;
or
- (d) for any failure to perform any obligation in this Lease unless the Customer has given the Supplier written notice of the facts giving rise to that failure and allowed the Supplier a reasonable time to remedy the matter.

Provided that the above clause 19.7 shall not:

- (i) be construed to relieve the Supplier from liability for breach of any of the Supplier's covenants contained in this Lease

- (ii) apply in the case of negligence or wilful act of omission of the Supplier its employees or agents
- (iii) apply where the Supplier is fully insured in respect of any such liability or receives full payment from a third party
- (iv) apply in relation to anything which the law prevents the Supplier from excluding liability.

19.8 Sale of goods after end of the Term

- (a) The Customer irrevocably appoints the Supplier as its agent to store or dispose of any items left by the Customer at the Premises more than 15 Working Days after the end of the Term.
- (b) The Supplier may store or dispose of such items after that time as it thinks fit and without any liability to the Customer other than to account to the Customer for the proceeds of sale after deducting any reasonable costs of sale or storage actually incurred by the Supplier.
- (c) The Customer agrees to indemnify the Supplier against any liability incurred by the Supplier by reason of the Supplier disposing of any items left at the Premises which do not belong to the Customer but which the Supplier believed did belong to the Customer (which will be presumed unless the contrary is proved).

19.9 Registration

- (a) If the Lease should be registered at the Land Registry under the 2002 Act the Customer will:
 - (i) use its reasonable endeavours to procure that the Customer is registered at the Land Registry as proprietor of the Lease as soon as reasonably possible and the Supplier shall provide the Customer with reasonable assistance as required by the Customer in completing such registration;
 - (ii) use its reasonable endeavours to procure that all rights granted or reserved by the Lease are properly noted against the affected titles; and
 - (iii) deliver to the Supplier within 10 Working Days of registration official copies of the registered title evidencing that the Customer is the registered proprietor of the Lease.
- (b) At the expiration or earlier determination of the Term the Customer shall:
 - (i) deliver to the Supplier the original Lease and all other title deeds and documents relating to the Premises; and
 - (ii) execute such document as the Supplier shall reasonably require in order to cancel any entry or title relating to the Lease at the Land Registry.

19.10 Arbitration

Where this Lease refers to a dispute being referred to arbitration it will be referred to a single arbitrator who will act in accordance with the Arbitration Act 1996 and the referral will be a submission to arbitration in accordance with that Act.

19.11 Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

Save as expressly provided none of the provisions of this Lease are intended to or will operate to confer any benefit (pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999) on a person who is not named as a party to this Lease.

19.12 Landlord and Tenant (Covenants) Act 1995

This Lease is a new tenancy for the purposes of section 1 of the Landlord and Tenant (Covenants) Act 1995.

19.13 Jurisdiction

- (a) This Lease will be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.
- (b) Each party irrevocably agrees to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales over any claim or matter arising under or in connection with this Lease or the legal relationships established by this Lease.
